Risk Limiting Audit Minutes

November 20, 2024

At 9:50am in conjunction with Angie Moore, Clerk of Court and with approval from the Virginia Department of Elections the ballot batches were removed from court storage for the preparation for the audit at 11:00am.

The board meeting called to order at 11:00am, November 20, 2024, at the Warren County Court House for the purpose of conducting the Post-Election Risk Limiting Audit of the November 2024 U.S. Senate race. Electoral Board Members present were Marilyn King, Chairman, and Lee Bowen, Secretary. Matthew Reisinger, Director of Elections and General Registrar, and Angie Moore, Clerk of Court were also present. No members of the public were in attendance.

Marilyn King, seconded by Lee Bowen, motioned to begin the RLA at 11:00am as per guidance provided by the Virginia Department of Elections.

Matthew Reisinger, General Registrar presented the board with the ballot pull list randomly generated by the state auditing software that directed Warren County to pull 13 ballots from the different ballot batches for the purpose of this audit.

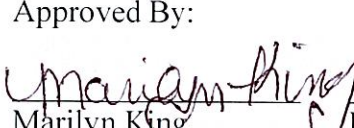

Ballots were pulled from each of the corresponding precinct batches and the results recorded and reported into the auditing software.

Upon the entering of all the required results the board directed the General Registrar to make proper notifications if a second round of audit would be required later in the day. Marilyn King seconded by Lee Bowen motioned to adjourn the meeting.

Adjourned – 11:30 a.m.
